

On behalf of the Wallingford Allotments and Gardens Society committee, this is a shout out to all residents of Wallingford and the local community that are interested in exhibiting at the Wallingford Show in Sept 2024. Sadly, a lack of participants at the 2023 Show means we need to hear from you NOW if the show is to continue.

The Show has been running for over 40 years and is aimed at anyone with a passion for home-grown horticulture, baking, preserves, photography, flower-arranging, arts and crafts and container gardening.

The show is affiliated to the Royal Horticultural Society and is a fun event, with the opportunity to share not only your best harvests but also your baking and creative talents. It takes place on the second Saturday in September and there are over 90 Classes in which to exhibit.

Each year, we have an enthusiastic group of volunteers that organise the Show and this appeal is not for help with this aspect, it is very much aimed at anyone who wishes to join and boost the dwindling group of exhibitors.

The Show organisers are open to suggestions for changes that bring about more exhibitors. This could be changing the timing of the event, the types of exhibits, entry fees, diversifying the event or anything else.

We are looking for least 30 people/families to come forward, by our AGM in April, to say they would like the show to continue and plan to enter in 2024.

In the first instance, if you are interested in getting involved as an exhibitor, please email Sandra our Show Secretary at s.halstead2@btinternet.com or call on 01491 836527
